Charting the Course Ahead: The New Direction for Corrections

May 24th through May 27th, 2022

Harrah's Resort, Atlantic City, New Jersey

Co-sponsored by the New Jersey Chapter of the American Correctional Association

The last year has certainly presented many additional hardships and challenges to serving the correctional population. Now more than ever, It's important to network and share resources and information. Join us as we navigate the "new normal" and examine emerging best practices in corrections and community corrections. Reconnect with other professionals. Enjoy the amenities that Harrah's Resort and Atlantic City have to offer.
